ATTORNEY'S ARGUE.

The Bar Meeting Yesterday Decide to do | Watches, Their Best

To Have a New Judicial District Formed.

A meeting of the Fort Worth bar was held in the courthouse yesterday afternoon, at which nearly all of Fort Worth's attorneys were present.

The object of the meeting was to devise a pian by which the passage of the bill introduced by Representative Chambers to have Tarrant county made a separate judicial district, would be assured.

A number of speeches were made, from which it is learned that more suits are now on the docket and more being brought, relatively, than in any other county of the state. The erowded state of the docket was shown the great delay in having cases disposed of, and the fact that Judge posed of, and the fact that Judge Hood held court forty-eight weeks in the year, longer than any other judge in the state. These facts were all dwelt upon, besides the heavy ex-pense to the county of maintaining the iall. Judge Beckbam presided at the meeting.

Judge Hood said be favored the formation of Tarrant county into the 37th judicial district.

Finally a motion was made that four attornies be appointed a committee to go to Austin and present the merits of the case to the committee who have power to substitute others in case they they could not go, appointed to go to Austin, were attorneys, should be passed until the gentlemen returned. It was decided to go at once, so Messro. Carter and McCart left this morning for Dallas, where they will be in attendance on the Federal court today and then go to Austin. Colonel Smith and Captain Greene will probably leave to-morrow morning. The bly leave to-morrow morning. The gentlemen have all the documents

The money raised by the sale of the bonds has nothing to do with increased activity in pushing the waterworks. A private corporation is building the

Mr. C. J. Beck, whose goods were attached a few days ago, has been granted an extension and resumed this statement. According to the business yesterday. Mr. Beek is a clever gentleman, and it speaks well for his fluancial standing that he was permitted to resume.

The boas' of John King, the young man accused of robbing Mr. Caihoun, was placed at $700 by the justice of the peace. King was not able to give it so he is still in jail. A number of persons speak well of young King and think there must be a mistake in the matter.
